

GREENSPACE PARTNERS WITH THOMAS, LARGE & SINGER TO DRIVE SUPPLY CHAIN EFFICIENCIES

TORONTO, July 5, 2021 /CNW/ - GreenSpace Brands Inc. ("GreenSpace" or the "Company") (TSXV: JTR), a leader within the organic and plant-based food industry, announces details of its new partnership with Thomas, Large & Singer ("TLS") who will provide logistics and distribution services for the Company's CENTRAL ROAST nuts, seeds and snack mix business.

As part of its comprehensive Project FIT initiative, the Company conducted a rigorous process to evaluate the capabilities of multiple leading logistics providers across Canada. The Company is pleased to announce that it has engaged TLS, a leading North American logistics organization, for a multi-year program, which is expected to deliver improved operational effectiveness and ongoing cost savings. The new relationship is effective July 2021. TLS will be responsible for all facets of logistics, warehousing, order-to-cash and trade investment administration for the CENTRAL ROAST business across Canada. In addition, TLS has extensive distribution capabilities across North America that the Company expects will help achieve geographic synergies and accelerate growth over time.

"We are delighted to announce the formation of our partnership with Thomas, Large & Singer. I am eager to have our team work alongside their leaders to accelerate our supply chain reinvention initiatives, drive best-in-class service levels for our retail customers and ensure a best-in-class cost structure for years to come," says Shawn Warren, President & CEO of GreenSpace Brands Inc.

"Our newly announced partnership with GreenSpace's CENTRAL ROAST brand presents an exciting opportunity for TLS to play a supporting role as the business further scales its North American distribution, by leveraging our systems and capabilities in supply chain, reporting and business intelligence." says David Singer, President of Thomas, Large & Singer.
